

Specific Learning Difficulties (Dyslexia)

Dyslexia Association of Bexley, Bromley, Greenwich and Lewisham's mission is to help dyslexic people of all ages by providing information and support. You can click the link to their website. www.dyslexiawise.co.uk or contact them on:

Tel: 07000 50 50 55

Email: info@dyslexiawise.co.uk

The British Dyslexia Association (BDA) is a national charity and their vision is a dyslexia friendly society that enables dyslexic people of all ages to reach their full potential. On their website they have a useful section on information for parents and in this section you will find dyslexia information relevant to parents, including, indications of dyslexia, getting help for your child, homework tips, choosing a school and much more. For further information and support you can click on the link to their website.

www.bdadyslexia.org.uk or contact them on:

Tel: 0845 251 9002

Email: helpline@bdadyslexia.org.uk

Dyslexia Action is the biggest dyslexia charity in the UK and they provide a wide range of services to people of all ages who have dyslexia and struggle with literacy. For further information and support you can follow the link www.dyslexiaaction.org.uk or Tel: 01784 222300

ISBI Schools

Helping parents find schools, independent, special, boarding and international. For further information you can follow the link: www.isbi.com